English for Teens

Our Summer Junior Camps offer young learners between the ages of 8 and 18 to learn, socialize, and explore in an environment that will prepare them for whatever challenges they may encounter in their future. Students from all over the world join us to study English as a Second Language (ESL): general ESL courses and electives through our time-tested English-based curriculum. Small class sizes, experienced teachers, and varied schedules ensure that our young students receive the personalized attention they deserve to help them grow and develop into more responsible adults.

Accommodations:

When students choose to live with one of our homestay hosts, they will be placed in an environment that will become a “home away from home”. Over 25 years, our network of hosts has grown to include every background and culture. We are able to cater to each student wants, needs, and desires form a homestay family. Whether our young students want to live with an older couple, in a family, newlyweds, or young college-graduates, we have someone for them. Living in a homestay allows students to practice their English in everyday life and participate in a normal family situation. We try to ensure we place a student in a room with someone who speaks another language – so they have to speak English! At your request, we can put two students together who really need to share, but think about how much more fun and language practice they will get sharing with someone that speaks another language. Students should remember that they are both part of a family and a guests at the same time and therefore, should help keep their room tidy and make their own beds; who knows, if they do it in the summer, they might even start doing it at home!

At Zoni, we understand better than most the anxiety that many parents experience when sending their children to study abroad for up to 12 weeks. Therefore, we do our utmost to ensure that the students who are living in our homestays are cared for as well as they would be at home. We conduct biannual home inspections, conduct background checks, and administer student satisfaction surveys to make sure that our homestay hosts are providing the care and comfort that the Zoni network expects. We want to assure all of the families that their trust is not misplaced, and that with Zoni, their children are in good hands.

Meals

Breakfast is usually a light meal consisting of cereal, fruit, toast, juice or tea. Hosts may ask students to help prepare breakfast. Encourage this as it can be a good time of day to talk about the future – “What are you doing today?” “What time will you be back from school?”

Lunch is sometimes provided by the host and sometimes by the teaching center. At weekends, students have lunch with their homestay hosts or get a packed lunch from their hosts if they are going on an excursion.

Dinner: Students have dinner with their hosts. Dinner is generally served between 17:30 and 19:00 hours. This is a great time to sit down and talk.

Special Diets: We may be able to cater for special diets such as halal, kosher, lactose-free or gluten-free, subject to availability. Any dietary requirements must be brought to our attention at the time of booking but cannot be guaranteed. Just ask, and we will see what we can do to help.

Showers/Baths

All students have access to a bath or shower at least once a day. Their hosts will show students how the shower works.

Transportation to and from School

Hosts will help students to find their way to and from school on their first day and will show them how to use public transport if necessary. The journey time will depend on the location of the homestay. Most hosts are located a short bus or train ride from the school.
